

MARINE RESOURCE ECONOMICS

REVISION GUIDELINES

While revising your work, please follow these guidelines:

MANUSCRIPT: When revisions are completed, please email a copy of the document(s). MS Word is the preferred program. Please note that we cannot accept LaTeX files. The manuscript should include a title page, abstract, short title, key words, and JEL classification code(s). For a complete list of codes, visit www.aeaweb.org/journal.html. Please be sure to include the full names, professional titles, complete addresses, and phone/fax/email of all authors. It should be double-spaced and printed on one side of white bond paper. Allow margins of at least one inch on all sides of the typed pages. Number the manuscript consecutively throughout in Arabic numerals.

RESPONSES TO REVIEWERS: Please provide detailed responses (on separate sheets) to each of the reviewers' comments, as they may have the opportunity to reevaluate your work.

TITLE: Must be as brief as possible (6 to 12 words).

RUNNING HEAD: Supply a shortened version of the title suitable for the running head, not to exceed 50 character spaces.

ABSTRACT: Please provide an abstract of not more than 150 words. Avoid abbreviations, diagrams, and reference to the text.

KEY WORDS: Supply 3 to 10 keywords or phrases which identify the most important subjects covered in the paper.

SECTION NUMBERS: Do not use section numbers. Use only words for headings (e.g., Introduction, Model Results, Conclusions).

TABLES: Place each table on a separate page at the end of the manuscript. Use double spacing and no vertical lines. Each table must be centered, numbered, and have a brief title above it; i.e.,

Table 1
Participation Model Results

Define all data in the column heads. Each table must be discussed or mentioned in the body of the manuscript and numbered in order of mention.

FIGURES: Place each figure on a separate page at the end of the manuscript. Each figure must be centered, numbered, and have a brief title below it; i.e.,

Figure 1. Average Monthly Fish Prices ($/fish)

FOOTNOTES: Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Use Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

REFERENCES: Citations within the text must include author name(s) and the date in parentheses; i.e., Smith, Jones, and Carter (1993) or (Anderson 2001). Use et al. in the text only when four or more authors are cited. Do not use et al. in the reference list. Alphabetize the reference section and include all text citations. For more information, consult the Chicago Manual of Style. Follow these examples:

Journal article:

Koenig, E.F. 1984. Fisheries Regulation Under Uncertainty: A Dynamic Analysis. Marine Resource Economics 1(2):193-98.

Book:

Heaps, T., and J.F. Helliwell. 1985. The Taxation of Natural Resources. Handbook of Public Economics, vol. I, A.J. Auerback and M. Feldstein, eds., pp. 421-72. Amsterdam: North-Holland.

THANK YOU! Compliance helps assure consistency and saves time.